

Resident makes a complaint, or officer observes violation

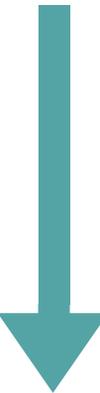

Complaint is logged in computer system and given a case number

Code Enforcement Officer is assigned to case

Code Enforcement Officer conducts an inspection

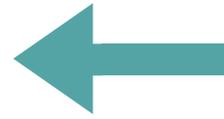

Compliance is the end result that benefits the community

If violation has not been corrected, administrative citations, an administrative hearing, imposed civil fines, or criminal action may be pursued.

At the expiration of the Notice of Violation, the property is re-inspected

If a violation is found, a Notice of Violation is issued